

Christmas cookies for kids!

Who doesn't love Christmas Cookies?
Old & young, they make us ALL say YUM!

But there are some who don't get to enjoy these special homemade cookies or many of the other blessings of the season...

Why not try start a new tradition this year?

Bake some Christmas cookies - with your friends,
with your kids, with your friends kids - and share them with others who otherwise wouldn't have any!

While you bake and decorate, take the opportunity to think, talk, and reflect on the special blessings that you have been given!

Consider sharing them with kids at...

- Homeless shelters
- Afterschool programs for inner-city kids
- Hospitals
